Note: Appraisal Institute of Canada and the University of British Columbia's Sauder School of Business are now partners in offering a program designed for people seeking to join the real property valuation profession—and for valuation practitioners already employed in the industry who want to upgrade their education. The University of Guelph, Athabasca University, L'Université du Québec à Montréal; Seneca College and Langara College also offer courses recognized by the Appraisal Institute of Canada.

Certified instructor for the subject "The Principles of Mortgage Financing" for Ontario colleges as administered by The Ontario Real Estate Association, 1975-1985.

Course instructor, Introduction to Appraisals, 1995-1996, Indian and Northern Affairs Canada.

CONTINUING EDUCATION, CONFERENCES

AIC: Since the early 1990s, the Appraisal Institute of Canada (AIC) has had a mandatory Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Program designed to ensure that Designated Members maintain and enhance their knowledge and skills in their area of practice throughout their career.

RECO: Since 2000 the Real Estate Council of Ontario Council of Ontario (RECO) has had a mandatory continuing education program that provides significant benefits to registrants, and the open market real estate buyers and sellers who look to them for guidance.

Ben Lansink has continually exceeded the credits required for both AIC and RECO.

OEA: The Ontario Expropriation Association (the "OEA") is made up of individuals from professions involved in the acquisition of land for public purposes. Expropriation occurs when public bodies such as the federal and provincial governments, municipalities or school boards, acquire land for public purposes under compulsion of law. In the majority of cases, expropriation involves a complicated process that must be carried out in strict accordance with legislation (in Ontario the Expropriations Act, R.S.O. 1990, CHAPTER E.26).

Ben Lansink was a member of the OEA and participated in its Seminars / Conferences.

Ben Lansink attends most of the yearly conferences of the Appraisal Institute of Canada and its Annual General Meetings.

EXPERT WITNESS EXPERIENCE

The Superior Court of Justice has jurisdiction over criminal, civil, and family cases, and is the largest superior trial court in Canada. The Divisional Court, Small Claims Court, and Family Court are all branches of the Superior Court of Justice.

Environment and Land Tribunals Ontario brings together five Ontario tribunals and boards which adjudicate matters related to land use planning, environmental and heritage protection, property assessment, land valuation and other matters. The land tribunals are the Assessment Review Board, the Board of Negotiation, and the Ontario Municipal Board.

The Federal Court is Canada's national trial court which hears and decides legal disputes arising in the federal domain, including claims against the Government of Canada, civil suits in federally regulated areas and challenges to the decisions of federal tribunals.

Over the years Mr. Lansink has been accepted as an expert witness to assist the Superior Court of Justice, the Land Tribunals, and the Federal Court.
